

Priority must govern native media admission before engine admission

(a) Before: native vLLM engine-only priority

Upstream waiting is already part of TTFT and cannot be recovered by engine scheduling

(b) After: native end-to-end media and engine priority

Urgent work starts when the next media slot becomes free; active background work is not interrupted